HIPAA Compliant Authorization and Company Privacy Policy Disclosure

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

INTRODUCTION:

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”) provides safeguards to protect your privacy. Implementation of HIPAA requirements officially began on April 14, 2003. Many of the policies have been our practice for years. HIPAA’s complete text is available on the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services web site: www.hhs.gov.

HIPAA states that there are rules and restrictions on who may see or be notified of your Protected Health Information.

Your information will be kept confidential except as is necessary to provide services or to ensure that all administrative matters are handled appropriately.

We agree to provide clients with access to their records in accordance with state and federal laws. You understand and agree to inspections of our office and review of documents which may include Protected Health Information by government agencies or insurance payers in normal performance of their duties.

Your confidential information will not be sold for any reason. We may change, add, delete or modify any of these provisions to better serve the needs of this company and you as the client. Any such modifications will be posted on our website. This Notice is effective as of June 1, 2014. You have the right to request restrictions in the use of your protected health information as the law permits. You also have the rights to: (1) receive confidential communications of Protected Health Information; (2) inspect and copy your Protected Health Information; (3) amend Protected Health Information that was previously provided; and (4) receive an accounting of disclosures of your Protected Health Information. These rights may be exercised by sending written requests to:
